the richard lombard award

The Lombard Award is given to the student who displays unmatched academic excellence. This award is presented to an undergraduate student with the highest cumulative GPA through the semester prior to Commencement. Through this student's achievements, they embody the spirit of lifelong learning and exemplify the sacrifices required of the post-traditional learner.

recipients:

Joanna Edwards Long '23, Bachelor of Arts

Cody Bertrand '23, Bachelor of Arts

the rev. michael harding, s.j. award

The Harding Award is given for outstanding achievement in Corporate Systems, Business, or Economics. Students in these disciplines are challenged to interweave theory, practice, and an interest in management with a broad liberal arts education and a focus on social responsibility. This award recognizes a student who has met this challenge while also excelling personally and academically. This awardee also has the honor of carrying the school banner and leading their fellow graduates into the University Commencement ceremony.

recipient:

Derek P. Michaels '23, Bachelor of Arts

Awards and Honors

the rev. george a. morgan, s.j. award

The Morgan Award is given to a graduating student who embodies post-traditional education through demonstrated excellence personally, professionally, and academically. Post-traditional students are confronted with a broad array of challenges, and the recipient of this award has confronted these challenges while maintaining a high level of excellence.
